one-year term duration.

4. The renewal of an Advisory Panel Member's term duration can be done through:
 - (a) A simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote by the Board;
 - (b) A simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote by the Core;
 - (c) A simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote of both the Board and Exco.
5. Information about all Advisory Panel Members will be published on the UKSSC's official communication platforms.

Section 4: Relationship between the UKSSC Exco and the UKSSC Advisory Panel

1. The Advisory Panel is to act in a strictly advisory and non-decisionmaking capacity.
2. The main point of liaison between members of the Exco and Advisory Panel will be the UKSSC President.
3. The Exco may request informal consultations with individual members of the Advisory Panel on specific issues, including (but not limited to) financial planning, event management, or partnership opportunities.
4. The Exco must submit quarterly reports to the Advisory Panel, detailing the following:
 - (a) Progress on key projects and initiatives undertaken by the UKSSC.
 - (b) Financial health of the UKSSC, including sponsorship updates, income, and expenditures.
 - (c) Plans for upcoming events and sponsorship or partnership opportunities.
5. The Exco must minimally schedule two meetings with the Advisory Panel per term. These meetings must follow the following guidelines:
 - (a) The Exco must schedule meetings with the Advisory Panel by providing minimally ten (10) days' advance notice.
 - (b) The objective of the meetings will be to cover the quarterly reports.
 - (c) Any additional meetings may also be convened at the discretion of the Exco.
 - (d) It is not mandatory for all members of the Advisory Panel to attend the meetings, however they must provide a reason for non-attendance.
 - (e) Meetings may be conducted virtually or in-person, depending on the availability of panel members.
 - (f) Meetings must be minuted by the Vice-President (Operations) and the minutes must be disseminated to all members of the Exco and Advisory Panel.

Section 5: Relationship between the UKSSC Advisory Panel and the UKSSC Board of Directors

1. To ensure that the Advisory Panel remains effective, the Board will conduct a biennial review of the Advisory Panel member's contributions and make adjustments as needed.
2. All Board members will automatically be co-opted as Advisory Panel members. So long as Board

ARTICLE 7: UKSSC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: Aims and Functions of the UKSSC Board of Directors

1. The aim of the UKSSC Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as the “Board”) is to provide governance and advice to the Exco, while holding legal ownership of the UKSSC’s financial assets.
2. Some of the functions of the Board will be to:
 - (a) Ensure sound financial management by controlling and safeguarding the financial assets of the UKSSC.
 - (b) Provide strategic guidance to the Exco on long-term planning and organizational sustainability.
 - (c) Mentor and support the Exco by sharing leadership experience and facilitating professional networks.
 - (d) Strengthen the UKSSC’s financial stability, offering advice on financial and legal issues, sponsorship, and partnerships.
3. While the Board will serve as the legal owners of the UKSSC as a business entity, their role in decision-making is limited to financial matters. The Exco will continue to manage the UKSSC’s day-to-day activities, events, and operational decisions.

Section 2: UKSSC Board of Directors Legal Duties

1. The Board will also be bound by its Company Constitution which will take precedence over its obligations to the UKSSC Constitution.
2. The Board of Directors will be the legal owners of the UKSSC business entity, responsible for ensuring compliance with relevant laws, regulations, and governance standards.
3. The legal ownership empowers the Board to oversee the financial management and liabilities of the UKSSC, ensuring that assets are used in line with the council’s mission and long-term sustainability.
4. The Board will review quarterly financial reports submitted by the Exco, ensuring transparency and fiscal responsibility.

Section 3: Composition of the UKSSC Board of Directors

1. The Board will consist of community leaders and previous members of the UKSSC Exco who possess the expertise necessary to oversee financial and strategic matters.
2. The Board will consist of between three (3) to seven (7) members, including the following key positions of Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and Members whose duties are stipulated in the UKSSC Company Constitution.

Section 4: Selection Procedure of the UKSSC Board of Directors

1. The following criteria will guide the selection of Board members:

 - (c) Mentorship Capability: Individuals should have experience in leadership roles and the ability to mentor Exco members in governance and financial management.
 - (d) Legal and Regulatory Knowledge: A strong understanding of legal and regulatory frameworks, particularly regarding nonprofit organizations or student councils, is preferred.
- 2. An individual can be nominated by any member of the Core or existing Board members. They will then be confirmed by a simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote of all members of the Core and existing Board members.
 - 3. Once confirmed, the Board Member will be invited to join the Board, with a two-year term duration.
 - 4. The renewal of a Board Member's term duration can be done through a simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote of both the Board and Exco.
 - 5. Information about all Board Members will be published on the UKSSC's official communication platforms.
 - 6. Board members will be remunerated with a small annual honorarium to be decided jointly by the Exco and the Board.

Section 6: Departure from Office of UKSSC Advisory Panel Members

- 1. Board members may only request to leave the Board after their term period has ended.
- 2. Board members may request to leave the Board for extenuating circumstances which must be explained to the Board and Exco. The Board member may only be allowed to leave through a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority vote of both the Board and Exco.
- 3. A Board member may be requested to leave the Board at any time either through:
 - (a) A two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority vote by the Board;
 - (b) A two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) majority vote by the Exco;
 - (c) A simple majority ($\frac{1}{2}$) vote of both the Board and Exco.
- 4. Board members who leave the Board for whatever reason must relinquish all responsibilities, duties, and assets entrusted to them during the course of their Board membership.
